

WELCOME TO THE VOICE OF THE ZUNI PEOPLE KSHI 90.9 FM

Corporation for Public Broadcasting Transparency Compliance Information

1. Senior Management

Paula Lalio, Interim General Manager – paula.lalio@ashiwi.org

2. Governing Body

Val Panteah Sr., Governor
Carleton Bowekaty, Lt. Governor
Virginia Chavez, Head Councilwoman
Arlen Quetawki Sr., Councilman
Eric Bobelu, Councilman
Ricky Penketewa Sr., Councilman
Arden Kucate, Councilman

3. Community Advisory Board (CAB)

KSHI is owned by the Zuni Tribe, Pueblo of Zuni, which is a Sovereign Nation with its own adopted constitution. KSHI is under the Division of Education & Training and does not have a CAB. Oversight is provided by the Division Director, Bernadette Panteah. KSHI abides by the Pueblo of Zuni's Personnel Policies and Procedures and adheres to the Financial Management Policies developed by the Finance Department.

4. Audited Financial Statement

To request the most recent audited financial statement, contact Paula Lalio, Interim General Manager paula.lalio@ashiwi.org

5. Most Recent Financial Statements

To request KSHI's FY 2021 FSR, contact Paula Lalio, Interim General Manager paula.lalio@ashiwi.org

6. IRS Form 990

Indian tribal governments are exempt from filing IRS form 990, Revenue Procedures 95-48 1995-2 C.B. 418

7. Donor Privacy Policy

In Accordance with federal and state laws regarding donor privacy and data security, KSHI does not disclose donor information to third parties nor rent donor information to, or exchange such with political organizations and/or candidates.

8. Diversity Statement

KSHI radio is licensed by the FCC as a non-commercial educational broadcast station and serves a minority audience residing within the Pueblo of Zuni. KSHI provides a variety of informational and cultural programming and diverse music throughout the day.

9. SAS Radio Survey

To request copies, contact Paula Lallo, Interim GM paula.lallo@ashwi.org

10. Meeting Notice

Policy Division meetings are held each month and is only for programs under the Division of Education and Training. Reach out to KSHI with any questions.